The home team is blue and supplies the Game ball (if one isn't already provided).

Casts and Jewelry: In practices and games, players may wear padded casts (only by the discretion of the referee). No jewelry of any kind will be worn.

No plastic/medal hair pieces, beads, bobby pins, or barrettes. No Earrings allowed. Not even taped!

All teams MUST share players, if the opposing team needs players to play minimum on the field.

No team may borrow players from another age group. Players must only play within their age group.

Spectators must remain on the opposite side of the field from their own players, two yards from the touchline (sideline). May NOT be behind or next to the goal area – to include behind goal line at corners).

No MCSA Recreational team will play more players than the other team has on the field at any time. If at game time, the total numbers of substitutes are 4 or less (Both teams combined) teams may play the required numbers of players as SPECIFIED on the schedule - 1 player unless prohibited by the age group coordinator. When substitutions are 5 or more (Both teams combined) the two teams MUST share players as necessary so that games play with the maximum numbers for their age group per field as articulated on the Rules Of Play.
